CHAMBERS OF
THE CHIEF JUSTICE

December 3, 1963

Honorable John Sherman Cooper,
United States Senator,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Senator:

I am calling a meeting of the President's Commission to investigate the assassination of President Kennedy on Thursday, December 5th, at 10:00 a.m., in the Conference Room of the National Archives Building.

I was not able to contact you sooner because I have just now arranged for quarters and obtained information from the Department of Justice concerning what material will be available to us and when it can be furnished. The reports of the various agencies involved have not yet been completed, so as far as I know now the first meeting will be only for organizational purposes. I am asking Deputy Attorney General Katzenbach to attend our meeting for the purpose of giving us further information concerning the availability of material.

Looking forward to seeing you Thursday morning, I am

Sincerely,

Earl Warren
